

Routine Maintenance Checklist

Before each trip
<input type="checkbox"/> Pre-run engine	<input type="checkbox"/> Check fluid and fuel levels
<input type="checkbox"/> Check steering	<input type="checkbox"/> Check fuel filter
<input type="checkbox"/> Check tire pressures	<input type="checkbox"/> Check Bilges are clean and dry
<input type="checkbox"/> Check Electrical (battery)	<input type="checkbox"/> Check Electrical (navigation lights)
After each trip
<input type="checkbox"/> As you winch the boat onto the trailer inspect the wire, webbing or rope for wear.
<input type="checkbox"/> Flush the engine with fresh water and wash down its exterior.
Monthly checks
<input type="checkbox"/> Ensure the trailer winch wire is well oiled to prevent corrosion
<input type="checkbox"/> Oil steering gear cable with the correct lubricant, check hydraulic fluid levels
<input type="checkbox"/> Check freeing ports (deck drain flaps) for positive opening and closing action.
<input type="checkbox"/> Check condition of all safety equipment (the detail of this is included in the safety equipment section) before securely storing it.
<input type="checkbox"/> Inspect the boat for rubbish
<input type="checkbox"/> Check berthing lines and anchor rope for wear
<input type="checkbox"/> Check that all auxiliary systems (anchor winch, windscreen wipers etc) are functioning
Yearly checks
<input type="checkbox"/> Inspect through-hull fittings for corrosion and water tightness; ensure sea cocks are working and check the condition of hoses and clamps attached to them.
<input type="checkbox"/> Check that important fittings (for example cleats, engines bolts, guard and grab rails) are still securely attached
<input type="checkbox"/> Have the LP gas system (if applicable) and electrical system serviced.
<input type="checkbox"/> Check aluminium hulls for corrosion and fatigue cracks, check fibreglass for blistering and impact cracks
<input type="checkbox"/> Check anodes for erosion, replace when about 40 per cent eroded
Compiled by Holiday Hunter (Aust) Pty Ltd www.holidayhunter.com.au	